

Modelling Behaviour to Inform Policy for Pandemics

Tuesday 2nd, Thursday 4th, Friday 5th November 2021
Isaac Newton Institute

Tuesday 2nd November:

Session 1: Understanding Behaviours

Time	Topic	Presenter
13:30	Zoom room opens
13:30-13:35	Welcome & Introduction	Jane Leeks (Newton Gateway to Mathematics) Flavio Toxvaerd (University of Cambridge) Ed Hill (University of Warwick)
13:35-14:05	Translating Behavioural Science Principals and Evidence into Modelling for Extreme Events	Brooke Rogers (King's College London)
14:05-14:35	The BBC Pandemic Programme	Stephen Kissler (Harvard)
14:35-15:00	Contacts and Behaviours during the Covid-19 Pandemic	Ellen Brooks-Pollock (University of Bristol)
15:00-15:20	Coffee Break
15:20-15:40	Epidemiological Impacts of the NHS Covid-19 App	Michelle Kendall (University of Warwick)
15:40-16:00	CoMix Study – Social Contact Survey in the UK	Amy Gimma & Chris Jarvis (LSHTM)
16:00-16:30	Q&A/Discussion	Chairs: Ed Hill (University of Warwick) & Flavio Toxvaerd (University of Cambridge)
16:30	Session 1 Ends	